The mystic Freedom of the Highlands

CELTICA – Pipes rock! The 6–piece band shows with its battle cry their musical direction: The majestic-mystic sound of the Great Highland Bagpipe elevates above the powerful rock band, the masterly played violin expends the unique style with symphonic-epic melodies. Influences of Irish Folk, Symphonic Metal, and even Gothic merge with the energetic Celtic music, full of lust of life. This sound, as international as the musicians - coming from Scotland, USA, Bulgaria and Austria- and the spectacular show guarantee a concert no one will ever forget. Mystic torches on the bagpipes and burning drumsticks, thundering against huge drums, create a cultic atmosphere, flames, shooting out of the instruments, entertain every audience worldwide...

That's why Celtica is one of the most booked acts at Celtic-, Scottish-, Steampunk- and Medieval Festivals as well as at town festivals. Celtica could conquer their fans by storm at more than 450 performances in Europe -from the legendary Wacken-Festival in the very North to South Spain, and at numerous US- and Canada- tours from New York to San Francisco, from Florida up to the Rocky Mountains, from Alaska to Hawaii.

The official music videos of Celtica with a blend of live show and artistic plot inspire so far more than 4million viewers on Youtube, and still counting...

„CELTICA is one of the best 10 Live-Shows I have ever seen in my life!“ Suzanne Lee Barnes, Booking European Harley Davidson Bike Week, friends with Eric Clapton, Ron Wood, Rod Stewart...
„Celtica is THE new band on the international Celtic music scene!“ Gall Mc Clellan, US promoter
